Dream Job Alert 🚀: Founding Professor of Practice, Faculty Leader (Part-Time)

Where? e2D World School - The Uber of Education 🌍

When? Posted: 04/03/2023 (First shout-out on 09/30/2022)

What? We're on a quest for brilliant minds in Human Resource Development, Data Science, Technology, and Financial Lending Network Development! 💡

What's it all about? This is no ordinary faculty role. We're offering an exciting opportunity to become a global influencer in your field, co-producing learning content, facilitating Harvard-standard case studies, and sparking fresh communities of learners every 15 weeks! 🎓

Who are we looking for? If you have a mindset for developing McKinsey Consulting-level expertise, you're the one we've been waiting for! As a Faculty Leader, you'll guide groups of 25-36 learning leaders, fueling their growth in areas such as tech, HR, and financial networks. Your innovative teaching approach will help us revolutionize education. 💼

Time commitment? Just 5-6 hours per week, mostly during evenings and weekends - perfect for a side hustle or passion project! 🕐

Minimum Qualifications? Online teaching experience, a master's degree (Ph.D. preferred) in the respective discipline, and expertise in the course subject area are a plus. But what we really value is your mindset for developing McKinsey Consulting-level expertise! 💥

Diversity

e2D World School, a trailblazing online education platform, is excited to announce multiple openings for part-time Founding Professors of Practice and Faculty Leaders in the disciplines of Human Resource Development, Data Science, Technology, and Financial Lending Network Development. These unique roles offer the opportunity to become global influencers, co-producing learning content, facilitating Harvard-standard case studies, and developing new communities of learners every 15 weeks.

We are seeking candidates with a mindset for developing expertise akin to McKinsey Consulting experience. As a Faculty Leader, you will mentor groups of 25-36 learning leaders, helping them develop in vital areas including technology competencies, human resources skills, and financial lending networks. You will also have a key role in building the 'Uber of Education' through your commitment to our mission and your innovative teaching and mentoring approach.

Position Description:

Your role will extend beyond traditional teaching, encompassing the co-production of learning content, facilitation of case studies, and creation of robust learning communities. You'll also be involved in design thinking and agile project management, working closely with a team of partner faculty to ensure the high quality of our courses and contribute to the professional growth of our learning leaders.

Essential Responsibilities:

Co-produce learning content and facilitate Harvard-standard case studies in Human Resource Development, Data Science, Technology, and Financial Lending Network Development.
Mentor and guide up to 36 learning leaders.
Commit approximately 5-6 hours per course per week, primarily during evenings and weekends.
Develop new communities of learners every 15 weeks.
Participate in building the 'Uber of Education' through innovative teaching and mentoring.
Collaborate with a team of partner faculty to maintain course quality and promote personal professional growth.
Minimum Qualifications:

Experience in online teaching using a learning management system is preferred.

Minimum degree requirement is a master's degree with a Ph.D. preferred in the respective discipline.
Expertise is required in the subject area of the course.
Mindset for developing McKinsey Consulting level expertise is preferred.
How to Join:

Interested applicants should submit an application via our faculty application portal at the following address: [https://www.worldschool.e-2-d.com/]

Who We Are:

e2D World School is an innovative online educational platform designed to provide quality education for students worldwide. By leveraging partnerships with learning communities, we aim to create professional and entrepreneurial acceleration through our programs.

e2D World School is an equal opportunity employer and seeks applicants who share its values of quality, opportunity, and access, and who are representative of its diverse student body. More information about the institution can be found at [https://www.worldschool.e-2-d.com/].
